

President's Message

Dave Otto, President TRNA

Remember how the opponents of Montañño Bridge used to say "The Bridge will be a parking lot?" If you have been by the bridge on recent weekends you know they were right. Wow, there sure are a lot of people taking advantage of the good weather to explore the bosque via the new bridge. There is even talk now of closing the bridge on Sundays so the fun can continue. I would remind you that the current plan for the bridge already has very wide pedestrian and bike lanes. It may be possible to keep the bridge open to car traffic and other forms of transportation.

We elected five new board members at the March meeting. We will be having our first meeting of the year on April 22 at which time we will outline priorities for the coming year. I would urge you to contact any of the new (or old) members with your suggestions.

Long time readers of this column know that I have not exactly been a great supporter of the Petroglyph National Monument. Many of you have expressed your thoughts both ways. The Greater Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce also recognizes that the park has not been exactly as advertised. So, the West Side Planning Council came up with idea of starting a Petroglyph Monument Foundation. This organization would be separate from the Chamber. This organization would, hopefully, be free from the political strife that surrounds the park and be dedicated to making the park as good as possible. This would be accomplished by raising funds for projects that otherwise would not be funded. For any of you who are interested, here is the chance to get in on the ground floor. The Chamber is trying to find people interested in serving as board members for this new foundation. If you have a passion for the monument call Frank Buehler at the Chamber. His number is 764-3731.

The YMCA is considering building a "full service" facility on the West Side. The first step is a survey to determine citizens interest. I hope you will take a few minutes and complete the "Y" questionnaire elsewhere in this newsletter.

Crime Prevention

David DeMoss TRNA director, Crime Prevention

The following is the overview from Lt. Paul Chavez's briefing before the TRNA board on 18 March 1997:

1. The Rio Rancho Police Department took a juvenile into custody for residential burglary. Before he calmed up, he admitted to a number of burglaries in Taylor Ranch (60-70).
2. The Cottonwood Mall will begin operation of a police substation somewhere around mid-April to May. This will be a full service substation open during mall hours (9 a.m.-9 p.m. Monday-Saturday; 11-7 p.m. Sunday). Officers working Zone A (north of Western Trail NW and south of Rio Rancho, west of the river) will be working out of the mall substation 24 hours a day. This substation essentially replaces that which was to be located within Taylor Ranch.
3. Gang activity in Taylor Ranch has been light. It has also been light at the Mall as the APD Gang Unit cracked down hard during the grand opening and the Christmas holidays. The Gang Unit still makes an appearance at the mall a few times a month.
4. Crime statistics are slow in coming. We'll keep you posted.

I've come to a conclusion about Sunday closings of the Montañño bridge. By simple extension of the found reasoning used by that theory's proponents, such as Councilor Robbins, the bridge should be closed to traffic every day and only opened between the hours of 3 a.m. to 4 a.m. This will fulfill the purpose of the bridge, which must be to accommodate foot traffic. Let's not wear it out with heavy things like cars. Yes, let's inconvenience residents who wish to visit friends who live on the other side of the bridge, commute to church, or solicit businesses on the other side. Yet, by further extension I believe that the City Council should order barricades on all roads to the North Valley during rush hours in order to reduce street congestion in Albuquerque. ®

Easter Party Wrap-up

The 1997 TRNA Easter Egg Part was the place to be Saturday March 30th. It was truly a festive event. I prayed for no snow and no rain, but I forgot to ask for no wind! Of course, I don't think it would have done any good. However, the wind didn't affect the enthusiasm of the party goers or the volunteers.

About 10:30 there were sirens blaring which got everyone's attention. It was the fire engine from station 18 announcing the arrival of the guests of honor, the Easter Bunny and his two faithful companions, Tweety and Sylvester. What a grand entrance!! The firemen were able to stay and let the children check out the fire truck. Thank you to the Fire Department and the firemen for their participation.

We were also fortunate to have the D.A.R.E. unit on sight to give the kids information. There were other characters at the party for the children to visit. The Bumble Bee from Hometown Buffet was handing out balloons, and clowns from Clowns of Enchantment were passing out candy and making kids of all ages laugh (smiling and laughing are healthy).

If you got hungry, our dependable crew were cooking up hot dogs and hamburgers and frito pies. We had sodas and other drinks on hand.

For the egg hunt this year we filled over 4100 eggs!!! That's a lot. But we didn't do it by ourselves. With the help of several Brownie Troops and the After School Program at LBJ, the task was accomplished. This year we had a GOLD prize. It was a $50 savings bond. To win a chance at it you would have to find a red ticket in the plastic eggs. There were four special eggs, one in each age group. At the end of the hunt, the children with the red tickets spun the wheel of fortune. The first to land on the gold space would be the winner. A little boy from the three and younger age group won; I didn't get his name. But his Mom was sure happy! Congratulations! Thank you for recycling the plastic eggs!

Burglary Prevention

[Information provided by the Bellevue Police Department; Crime Prevention Unit.]

Defining Burglary. Burglary is officially considered a simple property offense, a non-violent crime. Unfortunately, some burglaries progress to robbery, armed robbery, assault, rape, murder, or arson. Amateur criminals or criminals who cannot make it in more lucrative crimes resort to burglary. If allowed to continue, the youthful offender may turn into a hardened and violent criminal.

Eye on Education

Rexanna Jones, TRNA director

If you'd like to see first hand just what is happening in our local schools, please report to the Marie Hughs Elementary library on April 29th at 6 p.m. Judges for the Science Fair are desperately needed. The only requirements are free time and a good attitude. Please help!

You may have noticed the wonderful new traffic pattern at LBJ. Good work Mrs. Johnson!

Remember, a vacation for a snow day is scheduled for April 21st and the first day of school is set for August 18th, only four months away. ®

Government Affairs

Bob Woody, TRNA past director

Smith Engineering Company is requesting that the City of Albuquerque extend the approved preliminary plat for their subdivision at Coors Trail Road.

The City of Albuquerque is applying for a water well and well house site development plan at SW corner of Bogart & Foxford (near the library).

Consensus Planning is applying for a zone change at Villa Corta del Sur and La Orilla NW. The zone change will allow the construction of townhomes, 8-10 per acre.

Community Sciences Corporation has submitted a preliminary plat approval for River Front Estates II (31 lots). It would be located on the NE corner of Paseo del Norte & Coors. ®

I'd like to thank the Sports Corral in Rio Rancho for donating the use of their bouncer. We were unable to use it because it was just too windy.

Did your youngster get his face painted or win a cake? Well there were lots of games and crafts for the kids to choose from while they waited for the egg hunt. What's great about the games is that no one loses. Everybody gets a prize. There were lots of happy little faces. I saw lots of cakes that day. Thank you to all that brought in cakes!

Another attraction that we had was the Bread Board from Great Harvest. They were giving our samples and coupons for free bread. That sure was nice!

Along with the Easter Party this year, we thought it would be nice to do a food drive. The shelters receive lots during the winter holidays, but spring and summer come around and we tend to forget. This holiday should also be a time to share our blessings. And we share well. We collected two big boxes of non-perishables. We called Roadrunner Food Bank and they came to pick it up. Thank you for your support towards those less fortunate.

As you can see this is a very big production and a very enjoyable one too. It is all volunteer! I'd like to say "thank you very much" to all of you who helped make this another TRNA success. All the characters, the older kids that ran the games, the ladies and gents that sold tickets, the lady and gent that did the cake walk, the ladies and gents in the concession cooking and serving, those that made sure all the eggs got rolled out, and those who did clean up. Thanks to four very special husbands. Also special thanks to the backbone of our crew, Debbie Tatum, June Newman, and Karen Lopez.

Lost but has not yet been found: a lady named Molly set her camcorder down at the Easter party on Saturday to get her child that was chasing the Easter Bunny. When she went back for it, the camcorder was gone. There were so many video cameras around on Saturday. I'd like to think someone grabbed it by mistake (it could happen). IF this is the case or you know of someone who has an extra one, PLEASE let it get turned in. It's not just the camera, but the footage of her three small children which is irreplaceable. You can contact me at 899-2450. Hopefully it will find its way to the rightful owner. ☹

5. We currently have 25 sworn officers assigned to Zone A to cover the area seven days a week, 24 hours a day. These officers have geographical responsibility for the Zone, but still have to respond to calls for service south of Western Trail. This is especially true at peak activity periods. ☹

A burglar may keep a fraction of his loot, but the usual purpose of his activities is to obtain items which can be sold to a "fence" in order to get funds to buy drugs, etc. The "fence" and his customers are important links in the operation. Residents should be alert to suspicious activities in their neighborhood such as: 1) a constant flow of strangers to and from a particular building at unusual hours, and 2) offers of merchandise at unusually low prices.

The modern criminal is MOBILE and QUICK TO ACT. He looks for the most vulnerable area for easy profit - which could be YOUR Loss!

The Four D's: Consider the four D's when you select ways to make your house less attractive to the burglar:

- DETER the criminal from attacking your house or business in the first place.
- DENY him access to the building if he tries.
- DETECT him if he does attack so that the police can respond immediately.
- DELAY him so he can be apprehended before he completes any crime to person or property.

OUTSIDE YOUR HOME

Protect your home by starting where the burglars usually start - outside.

Landscaping: Look around. Are there large trees near the house? Prune lower limbs that could help a thief climb in a second floor window. Don't forget to trim trees and bushes so doors and windows are visible to neighbors. Think twice about installing high wooden fences - criminals can slip in and work unobserved with little fear of being caught.

Remember to lock up ladders and tools. Ask your neighbors to do the same. Trellises look great, but place them where they can't be used as ladders to second floor windows.

Lighting: Criminals most often avoid the light. Porches, yards, and entrances to your home and garage should be well lighted. Check with your local police department for suggestions about lighting. A spotlight may be best for your needs but other kinds of lights can work as well at lesser costs.

Your House Number: Make sure the Police or Fire Department can locate your house in an emergency. Your house number should be clearly visible from the street, day or night.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

To frustrate a burglar, reduce or remove his opportunities. Simple, practical crime prevention techniques when implemented, are demonstrating overwhelming success at deterring the burglar. Inspect all points of entry into your home.

The first step in helping prevent household burglary is simply to lock your doors and windows. Just by doing this you've greatly reduced the odds of your home being burglarized.

One thing you can be sure of is that the burglar is looking for the easiest job. Don't help the burglar. Make it as difficult as possible for a burglar to enter your home. Lock your doors and make your home look occupied when you're not around. There's a better chance the burglar will look for an easier break-in somewhere else.
