Newsletter of the Taylor Ranch Neighborhood Association, Inc.

November 2003

At Thanksgiving more than ever, our thoughts turn gratefully to those who have made our progress possible. And in this spirit we say, simply but sincerely,

Thank You and Best Wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving

SUCCEEDING IN OUR MISSION

*What you can say when asked
“Why should I join TRNA?”*

TRNA influences what you see in Taylor Ranch...

- Trees and landscaping in Taylor Ranch Road medians
- New Community Center
- Preservation of Equestrian Zoning
- Working with commercial interests to adapt their building designs to fit our community

And TRNA influences what you don't see...

- Campaign for removal of predatory sex offender from our community
- Working with developers to avoid “garage-scape” streets , reduce housing density, and design developments around enhancing rather than blocking views
- Beautification of our adopted park
- Ongoing behind-the-scenes cooperation in many aspects of community management

We cannot emphasize enough—every member makes a difference...

membership counts

TRNA is vital to our community, and membership is vital to TRNA.

Our mission is to Promote, Preserve, and Improve the quality of life in Taylor Ranch.

TRNA Annual Holiday Luncheon

Saturday, December 6, 2002 * 12:00 Noon to 2:30 p.m.
Outback Steakhouse, 10022 Coors Blvd NW

The Outback Steakhouse has graciously offered to host our Holiday Luncheon again this year. Arrive at noon for a delicious lunch (kitchen closes at 12:30), followed by our annual meeting, door prizes, and Santa's visit. Please bring a dessert to share. It's wonderful to see and taste the great desserts!

We will also be collecting non-perishable food items or toiletries for our annual holiday basket project for Taylor Ranch families in need. TRNA members have given these wonderful gifts for several years. Boxes will be available for your donation.

Please send in your reservation as soon as possible so we can plan for food and get the list to Santa well in advance. Due to the limited space, this luncheon is members only (no guests, please). If you have any questions, please contact June Newman at 898-5447.

Reservation Form

Yes, we will attend the party on Saturday, December 6! We will bring a dessert to share and a non-perishable food item to donate.
